Combining Parenting and a Career

11 Sep 1 – 2pm
ClockTower Building 105, Room 018

Presented by the Equity Office – Te Ara Tautika, Human Resources and the Tertiary Education Union.

Dr Lixin Jiang's talk will cover evidence-based strategies that may help staff cope with work-life conflict. She will outline how staff (and their managers) can work towards reducing the negative effects of these crossovers.

Associate Professor Kerry Gibson's talk will help parents of students to better understand the pressures their children might be facing during their studies. It will also offer parents some ideas for how they can support their child during University.

Prue Toft, Director of Staff Equity will also be present to outline the support provided by the University in this area.
