

Auckland History Initiative Symposium

15 April at Waipapa Marae, The University of Auckland

PROGRAMME

9.00-9.20 Mihi: Hirini Kaa

9.20-9.30 Introduction: Linda Bryder

9.30-10.00 Russell Stone on the importance of Auckland History

10.00-11.00 Keynote: Grace Karskens, School of Humanities and Languages, University of New South Wales, Sydney, Going Public: Historians, public history and the power of place

11.00-11.30 Morning tea

11.30-1.30 Research into Auckland history:

Charlotte Macdonald, Victoria University of Wellington, Glitter and Gore: Auckland's origins as a garrison town

Raewyn Dalziel, University of Auckland, Benjamin Cunningham and the First Auckland City Mission

Ben Schrader, Independent historian, Government House: The first 'Auckland' building?

Hazel Petrie, Independent historian, Black Fellows and White Chinamen: Chinese, Indian, Lebanese & Dalmatians in Auckland, c1890-1920s

1.30-2.00 Lunch

2.00-2.30 Students' engagement with Auckland History: Nathan Mcleay – Harbour Bridge, Nancy Mitchelson – Queen Street, Nicholas Jones – Māori Community Centre

2.30-3.00 Update on Museum Tamaki Galleries

3.00-4.00 Panel discussion on urban history, facilitator: Jessica Parr

5.00-7.00 At the Auckland Museum:

Inaugural AHI Annual Lecture by Margaret Kawharu and David Williams, followed by a reception

The Ngāti Whātua Ōrākei Journey Towards an Historical Account in Treaty Settlement Negotiations (1999-2011): Hapū perspectives and some comments on 'legislated history'

Please register for the Symposium and AHI Lecture separately at Eventbrite:

<https://www.eventbrite.com/>