Important notes for student teachers:

- Attendance at on-campus lecture sessions…
  All EDPRACM courses consist of two components for student teachers: an on-campus taught component and a practicum placement in schools. Your on-campus lectures are structured to prepare you for your school practicum placement. These lectures are an important part of preparing you for the practicum and your future as a professional teacher. We reserve the right to not allow you a school practicum placement where we identify that you are not sufficiently prepared. This could result in failure of the practicum course in which you are enrolled. Should exceptional circumstances arise regarding attendance, student teachers need to contact their practicum course lecturer directly as soon as possible.

- Leave from practicum form. You must apply in advance to your practicum coordinator using the form found at this link forms.auckland.ac.nz/en/student/education-and-social-work/request-for-leave-during-practicum.html

- All practicum related meetings on school sites are only able to include student teachers, university professional supervisors, and school staff. There can be no exception.

- During practicum, student teachers must keep their student ID cards with them.

Te pūtake o te noho ā-kura EDPRACM 204
The purpose of EDPRACM 204

Practicum learning outcomes are based upon four recurring themes:
- forming professional relationships – including effective communication
- focusing on purposeful teaching and learning
- being a professional teacher in Aotearoa New Zealand
- understanding the complexity of the teacher’s role and the educational context

EDPRACM 204 provides an opportunity for student teachers to focus on effective pedagogical practice that optimises the learning of children. It has a specific focus on:
- effective communication and relationships with children, colleagues, families and whanau.
- how pedagogical practice optimises children’s learning and is informed by theory, research and practice.
- the behaviour and dispositions expected of professional teachers in Aotearoa-New Zealand.
- teaching in relation to contextual factors.

During EDPRACM 204 student teachers will be required to work towards teaching the whole class and to take full responsibility of the class programme for a minimum of eight consecutive days.

Full-class responsibility requires the student teacher to organise, manage, plan for and teach the class using the associate teacher’s long-term plans and assessment information as a foundation for this. It is important that student teachers work in collaboration with their associate teachers to interpret the long term plans and construct a teaching/learning programme for the eight days that clearly shows a ‘flavour’ which is their own. This must not, however, compromise the intent and aim of the associate teacher’s long-term plans.
EDPRACM 204: He rārangi o ngā whakaritenga mā te pouako pīrere

List of student teacher requirements

Before EDPRACM 204, I have...

- Attended/accessed all EDPRACM 204 on-campus sessions

| 1. Establish professional relationships and communicate effectively with ākonga and colleagues. | 1.1 Effective communication with children, colleagues, parents/whānau is practised consistently and reflected upon regularly.
1.2 Effective professional relationships within the educational community of the school are practised consistently. |
| 2. Demonstrate effective pedagogical practice that promotes ākonga learning and is informed by theory, research, current curriculum and practice. | 21 Planning is informed by discussion about, and thoughtful analysis of, focused observations and assessment information in accordance with policy documents.
22 A variety of teaching/learning approaches to enhance children’s learning are selected in an informed manner when planning, and enacted in teaching.
23 Sequential teaching/learning experiences are planned, implemented and evaluated (across a range of curriculum areas) with multiple groups and whole class.
24 Children’s social competence is fostered by strategies that are contextually appropriate and consistently applied.
25 Bicultural practices and diversity are considered when planning for learning. |
| 3. Demonstrate and reflect on the responsibilities and dispositions expected as a professional teacher in Aotearoa New Zealand. | 3.1 Positive personal and professional responsibilities are demonstrated appropriately.
3.2 Requirements stipulated by the Teaching Council (Code of Professional Responsibility, Standards for the Teaching Profession and TātaiReo) are demonstrated appropriately.
3.3 Practicum-related professional development ‘next steps’ are identified, actioned and evaluated effectively.
3.4 Opportunities for professional growth are recognised and appropriate procedures to capitalise upon these are identified, and critically reflected upon. |
| 4. Explain how significant contextual complexities have implications for teaching and learning. | 4.1 The implications of the social, cultural and political factors that impact on teaching are discussed and reflected upon in an informed manner. |
| 5. Use te reo Māori discourse appropriate to practicum context. | 5.1 Use te Māori language skills and knowledge effectively to facilitate the teaching and learning process.
5.2 Use the systems of the Māori language to facilitate exploration and learning through meaningful contexts.
5.3 Use Māori language skills and knowledge appropriately to facilitate learning of and through te ao Māori. |

1. TE MĀTAKITAKITANGA (OBSERVING)

Arotahi Mātakitaki 1: Te whakawhanake mōhio ki te taiao ako o te akomanga
Observation Focus 1: Developing familiarity with the classroom learning environment

During the first week of the practicum use your own observations as well as opportunities to ask children and your associate teacher questions that will enable you to quickly discover the following:

- the composition of the class (note the diversity and range of learners within the class)
- what children are learning/have learnt
- how children’s learning is organised (e.g. class timetable, various groupings)
- what established classroom routines are in place (e.g. transitioning between tasks)
- how the classroom culture is designed to ensure the safety and wellbeing of the children
- the beliefs your associate teacher holds about learners and learning

Record your findings about each aspect (above) and seek your associate teacher’s responses to the following questions:

- How can a teacher effectively address the needs of diverse learners within the classroom?
- What beliefs about learning and learners inform her/his teaching practice?

Arotahi Mātakitaki 2: Te tukanga whaakako, arā, te whakamahere, te whaakaako, te aromatawai me te arotake, i ngā wāhanga ako
Observation Focus 2: The teaching process in specific curriculum areas
(i.e. assessing, planning, teaching, evaluating, reflecting)

Complete at least four focused observations of your associate teacher in at least two curriculum areas. Use the template at drive.google.com to document your observations.

Before each observation:

- Briefly discuss the assessment information and planning decisions made by your associate teacher in preparation for teaching the lesson.
- With the support of your AT,
  - identify a focus question for your observation.
  - discuss the intended learning and the learning experiences that your associate teacher has planned for the lesson.

During each observation:

- record deliberate teacher actions related to the focus question and the intended learning.

Following each observation:

- discuss information collected from your observation with your associate teacher by asking carefully formulated questions to help clarify your understanding.
- record the key points from your discussion including some ‘next steps’ for your own practice (e.g. further observation, planning for teaching a group, leading a class session).
Arotahi Mātakītaki 3:
Te kite, te āhukahuka me te urupare ki te ako a te ākonga (arā, te mātakītaki me te aromatawai i ngā pāhekohekotanga o te ākonga me te pouhāpai)

Observation Focus 3:
Noticing, recognising and responding to children’s learning
(i.e. observing & assessing learners during learner / associate teacher interactions)

Complete six observations of your associate teacher teaching groups in two curriculum areas
(e.g. three Te Reo Matatini groups and three Pāngarau groups).

Use the ‘Notice, recognise and respond’ template at drive.google.com to document your observations.

Before beginning this task discuss and document the following aspects with your associate teacher:
- the different purposes of assessment, the different methods used to collect assessment information, how and when the information is recorded, analysed and used.

Before each observation, ask your associate teacher to:
- identify and explain the learning intentions and learning experiences for each lesson.

During each observation:
Record on your template the following assessment information about individual children within each group as they interact with your AT and each other during the session:

- briefly describe what you noticed about each child’s learning in relation to the learning intentions and record evidence that indicates learning.
  i.e. What did you see? What did you hear?
- identify what you recognise as being significant for each child and her/his learning eg. asking questions, responding to questions, engagement.
- identify how you will respond to the children in your planning and teaching; record key points for your future planning as well as possible feedback you might give each child.

Following each observation:
- discuss your findings with your associate teacher and confirm ‘next steps’ for children’s learning, and for your own teaching/learning.
- collaboratively plan the next lesson with your AT.

2. TE AROMATAWAI, TE WHAKAMAHERE, TE WHAKAAKO, TE AROTAKE
ASSESSING, PLANNING, TEACHING, EVALUATING

Summary:
During EDPRACM 204, you will be involved in assessment, planning, teaching, and evaluating. You will need to provide documented evidence of:

- sequences of lessons for multiple groups of children in two curriculum areas and related assessment information.
- a sequence of lessons for a larger group of children/the whole class in at least one other curriculum area and related assessment information.
- short-term/weekly planning.
  - Present all planning to your associate teacher well in advance of the teaching sessions to allow sufficient time for modification.
  - The lesson sequence template at drive.google.com can be used for planning lesson sequences.
  - Assess, plan, teach, and evaluate in as many areas of the curriculum as possible (a minimum of three) including, where possible, Pāngarau and Te Reo Matatini.
  - Include multiple group management (of at least two groups) within your practicum teaching experience.
  - Gradually work towards taking full responsibility for planning, teaching, and managing the class learning programme for 8 consecutive days.

Arotahi 1: He raupapa akoranga mō ngā rōpū maha
Assessing/planning/teaching/evaluating
Focus 1: Sequences of lessons for multiple groups of children

Negotiate with your associate teacher to plan, teach, and evaluate 3-4 consecutive lessons for the same groups of children you observed for Observation Focus 3.

Before planning lesson sequences for multiple groups:
- review the assessment information you collected, documented, and discussed from Observation Focus 3.
- discuss and clarify key points for your future direction with your associate teacher.
- use this information to inform your planning giving consideration to individuals within each group who might need particular teacher attention.
- share your planning in advance with your associate teacher.
During each lesson in the sequence:
- based on your interactions with the children as you teach each lesson, continue to assess, and evaluate their learning (and your own teaching) in an on-going manner.

Following each lesson in the sequence:
- annotate each lesson plan to include new assessment information i.e. What did you notice about each child's learning? What do you recognise as being significant for each child and her/his learning?
- use this information and your evaluations to inform your lesson sequence planning and teaching i.e. How will you respond to these children in your planning and teaching?

Arotahi 2: He raupapa akoranga mō ngā rōpū rahi me te akomanga katoa
Focus 2: Sequences of lessons for larger groups and/or whole class

In collaboration with your associate teacher, prepare two sequences of lessons (units/long-term plans) in two other curriculum areas (i.e. other than Reading and Maths) that you will teach to a larger group and/or the whole class.

Before planning lesson sequences for a larger group and/or the whole class:
- discuss the learning intentions/success criteria for the lesson sequences
- discuss with your associate teacher one possible assessment activity that you might include in each sequence of lessons to gather assessment information from the larger group/the class, in relation to the intended learning intentions and success criteria
- share your planning in advance with your associate teacher

During each lesson in the sequence:
- based on children's responses to your planned assessment activity (i.e. assessment information/evidence), continue to assess and evaluate your teaching (and their learning) in an on-going manner

Following each lesson in the sequence:
- annotate each lesson plan to include new assessment information i.e. What information/evidence* did your planned assessment activity reveal/elicit for you in relation to the learning intentions/success criteria? What interpretation can you make of this information/evidence?
- use this information and your evaluations to inform your subsequent lesson planning and teaching
  i.e. What future planning and teaching actions do you now need to take to enhance learning for these children?

* As you teach each lesson sequence, continue to discuss and/or clarify key points for your future action and direction with your associate teacher.
Document follow-up discussion with your associate teacher:

- What you have learnt about the ways these two types of assessment can be used to enhance children’s learning? i.e. assessing learners during learner / teacher interactions and assessing learners using planned assessment activities.
- What you have learnt about the relationship between assessing, planning, teaching, and evaluating?

3. TE WHAKAMAHERE MŌ TE WĀ POTO - SHORT-TERM PLANNING

- in consultation with your associate teacher, identify a planning format that is suitable for documenting short-term/weekly planning
- use this format to note both your associate teacher’s and your own teaching responsibilities throughout the practicum i.e. six weekly plans
- show appropriate links between your short-term planning and long-term planning

Te ‘Pānui ā-waha’ me ngā Pūkete Whai Haere
‘Read alouds’ and Running Records

- Select and read appropriate pieces of children’s literature (e.g. picture book, novel, big book, poetry, etc.) to the class as often as possible.
- Record the titles in a ‘Reading Log’ for future reference giving each a rating of 1-5.
- Arrange with your AT to administer and analyse at least two running records or, if you are working with older, more fluent readers, you may need to request that you administer and analyse at least two PROBE tests.
  o If possible, discuss your analyses and the ‘where to next’ decisions you make for each student with your AT.

Important note for Associate Teachers:

Student teachers should not be put in a vulnerable situation by being asked to relief-teach a class. Such requests are not appropriate and can impact on student teacher confidence. It is important that student teachers are provided with opportunities to observe and to be observed, and to receive feedback about their professional growth. It is a Ministry of Education requirement that a class remains under the supervision of an employed teacher at all times when a student teacher is placed in the school. This means that the associate teacher/or delegated alternate maintains the in loco parentis role and carries the responsibility for what occurs in that room.
During this practicum you are required to reflect regularly on your own teaching practice and professional learning, as well as interactions arising from your practice that caused you uncertainty.

➢ Some of your reflective practice will take the form of discussions with your AT, PS and other colleagues. These discussions will help you to clarify your thinking, make links to theory and research, refine your practice, and examine your beliefs about teaching and learning. Keep notes from reflective discussions in your practicum file to share with your poutoro.

➢ Each week discuss with your AT a focus for your own professional development and record this. At the end of the week, reflect on and record your progress with your AT and identify your focus for the following week.

➢ During the practicum, record at least two professional reflections focusing on your own practice. Use the framework outlined in the reflection template at drive.google.com (Pohatu, 2013; Smyth, 1991) to:

DESCRIBE – What happened? What did I do?
- succinctly describe what occurred.

CONSIDER PERSPECTIVES – Why did I act/respond in this way? How did this make me feel? How were others affected?
- carefully consider your own and others’ perspectives.

UNDERSTAND – What do I now understand about myself as a teacher? What has informed my understanding?
- make links to literature, theory, and discussions with your AT and other colleagues.

ACT – What actions could I have taken? Why? What action will I take in future?
- consider different possible actions, then briefly outline your selected action plan.

NB: Discuss your first reflection with your associate teacher and email it to your professional supervisor for feedback.

➢ IRIS Video
Record 2x video using the IRIS tool (totalling no more than 30 minutes) in weeks three or four of the practicum. These are done before your visit from your professional supervisor so they have some background on what you have been working on and where they can focus their observation.

Before the lesson
- Decide what part of your practice you are going to focus and reflect upon
- Plan the lesson and share your planning with your AT
- Practice setting up the camera (for the best angle to share your selected focus)

During the lesson
- on the basis of your interactions with the children as you teach each lesson, continue to assess and evaluate their learning (and your own teaching) in an on-going manner.

After the lesson
- Upload the video to IRIS
• Use the ‘General Reflection Template’ to annotate and comment on your teaching, in relation to your focus
• Share the video with reflection to your Professional Supervisor (you may also want to share it with your AT and get their feedback, but this is not essential).

Note: You may record and annotate more than 2 videos (totalling 30 minutes maximum) to IRIS. Your professional supervisor will only watch and provide feedback on a maximum of 30 min.

➢ Reflective summary
Prior to your end-of-practicum debrief meeting with your poutoro, complete a Reflective Summary considering your professional learning and development during EDPRACM 204. Use the template at drive.google.com to document your responses to the following questions:

• What have I learnt about the role of teacher in relation to assessment and catering for diverse learners? (LOs 1/2/3/5)
• What specific contextual factors impacting teaching and learning have I encountered during practicum and how effective was my response to them? (LO4)
• What are key areas for my development as an inquiring teacher in Aotearoa/NZ for my next practicum? (LOs 3/5)

- Share your Reflective Summary with your professional supervisor (poutoro) as part of the debriefing process

5. NGĀ NGOHE ME MATUA TŪTIKI #1 ME TE #2
COMPULSORY TASKS #1 AND #2

Compulsory Task #1: Pre-practicum
In the template provided at drive.google.com, identify and describe four ways that you could evidence your achievement of each learning outcome to optimise your professional learning.

Criteria:
• four appropriate examples of evidence are identified for each learning outcome
• examples noted are designed to optimise own learning on practicum

Share your completed task with your associate teacher and with your professional supervisor during her/his initial visit. It will be assessed by your professional supervisor as part of your practicum documentation.

Compulsory Task #2: During the practicum
Throughout the practicum, keep a record of your progress with respect to each of the “Key Teaching Tasks” using the form Compulsory Task #2 at drive.google.com.

Discuss your progress with your AT and PS in relation to the KTTs during Week 3 and again prior to your professional conversation.
6. NGĀ MATAPAKI NGAIO ME TE TUMUAKI RĀTOU KO NGĀ HOAMAHI

DISCUSSIONS WITH THE PRINCIPAL AND PROFESSIONAL COLLEAGUES

It is anticipated that during each practicum the principal (or her/his representative) is able to meet with student teachers to discuss the broader dimensions of school life that impact on the teaching role. You should be prepared with questions for discussion and record a brief summary of the responses related to such aspects as:

- the teacher’s role/responsibilities within the school community
- how Te Marautanga o Aotearoa (Te Tāhuhu o te Mātauranga, 2017), Te Marautanga o Te Aho Matua (Te Rūnanga Nui o Ngā Kura Kaupapa Māori o Aotearoa, 2015), or The New Zealand Curriculum (Ministry of Education, 2017) are being implemented within the school
  - the school policies/procedures relating to assessment (recording and reporting)
  - the social, cultural, ethical and political factors that impact on decision-making and curriculum implementation
  - policies/practices in place to support educational achievement of Māori and Pasifika learners
  - ways the school is inclusive and responsive to diverse learners and their families/whānau
  - ways the school makes connections with its community to support children’s learning

You should also engage your associate teacher and other professional colleagues in discussions to learn about the beliefs which inform their professional actions, their classroom practices, and the teaching/learning decisions they make. Use opportunities to discuss and record notes about your conversations:

- the variety and complexity of the teacher’s role and responsibilities, i.e., activities/tasks that classroom teachers are involved in professionally within the classroom/school environment
- how nationally mandated curriculum and the school’s localised curriculum are being implemented within the classroom programme
- the implementation of school policies/procedures relating to assessment
- how teachers plan for and organise the class to optimise learning for diverse learners
- ways home-school partnerships are fostered to support children’s learning

7. MAINTAINING DOCUMENTATION

You are expected to maintain a high standard of documentation as would be expected of a professional. We encourage you to personalise your digital practicum file/folder and to organise it in a way that is meaningful for you, but it must be accessible and well-maintained. It could include the following clearly labelled sections:

- Compulsory Tasks #1 and #2 – see descriptions on page 22
- Faculty of Education information - practicum brief, Practicum Handbook, relevant handouts/notes
• School and classroom setting – special features, organisation, policies and procedures, notes from discussions with principal and other school colleagues
• Specific practicum tasks
  ▪ i.e., Te Mātakitakitanga (observing); te aromatawai, te whakamahere, te whakaako, te arotake (assessing, planning, teaching, evaluating) and ngā mahi whakaaroaro (reflecting tasks; see pp.14-20).
- Short-term (weekly) planning – for the duration of the practicum (associate teacher’s and own plans) - Long-term planning (lesson sequences) for groups, larger groups/whole class
- Professional Reflections and ‘Next Steps’ sheets
  • Associate teacher’s observations/feedback, notes from discussions with associate teacher
  • Associate teacher’s assessment information and planning e.g., term overviews/unit plans (copies)
  • Resource materials developed/colllected for personal teaching during practicum

8. ASSESSMENT OF THE PRACTICUM

The final decision about pass/fail will be made and recorded by the professional supervisor on the basis of the documentation and material supplied as evidence of your achievement of the learning outcomes (inclusive of specified Standards and KTTs), when you return to the Faculty.
