

Unlocking Mātauranga

Collaboration in the research interface

EDIBLE RESEARCH

Translational research in Food and Nutrition Science
Kia Whai Hua te Rangahau i ngā Mātauranga Kai

Meika Foster

The People

The Vision

The Project

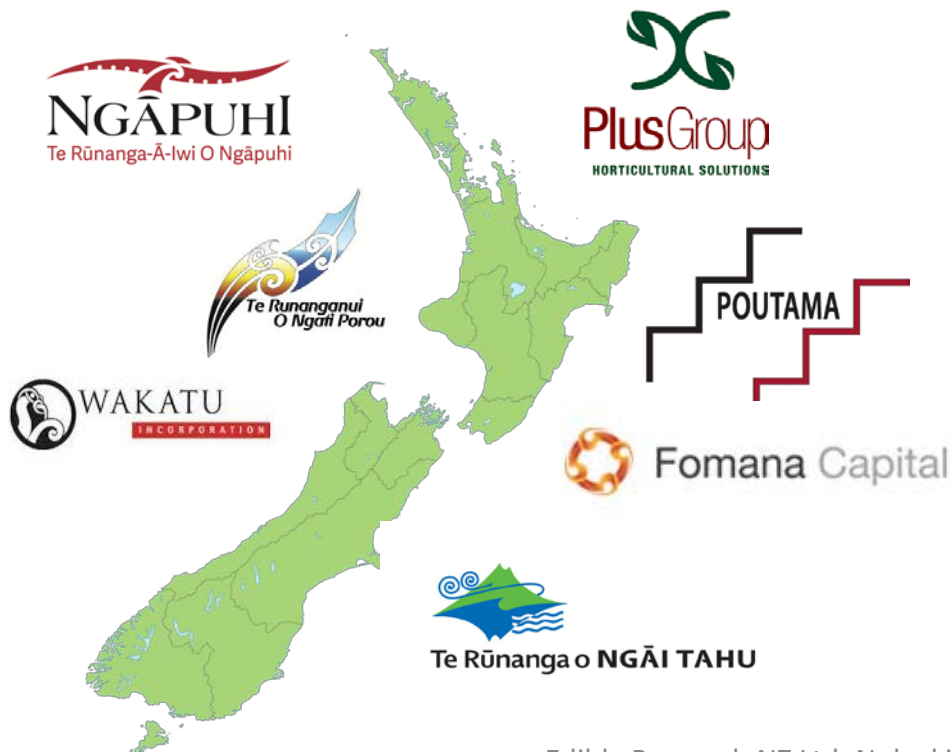

The Benefits

HIGH-VALUE
NUTRITION

Ko Ngā Kai
Whai Painga

Nuku ki te Puku

Integral to its VM focus, HVN is committed to:

-  investment in research that
 - 1) specifically targets Māori needs and aspirations
 - 2) employs Mātauranga Māori
-  ensuring satisfaction among Māori stakeholders

 The People

 The Vision

 The Project

 The Benefits

Vision Mātauranga

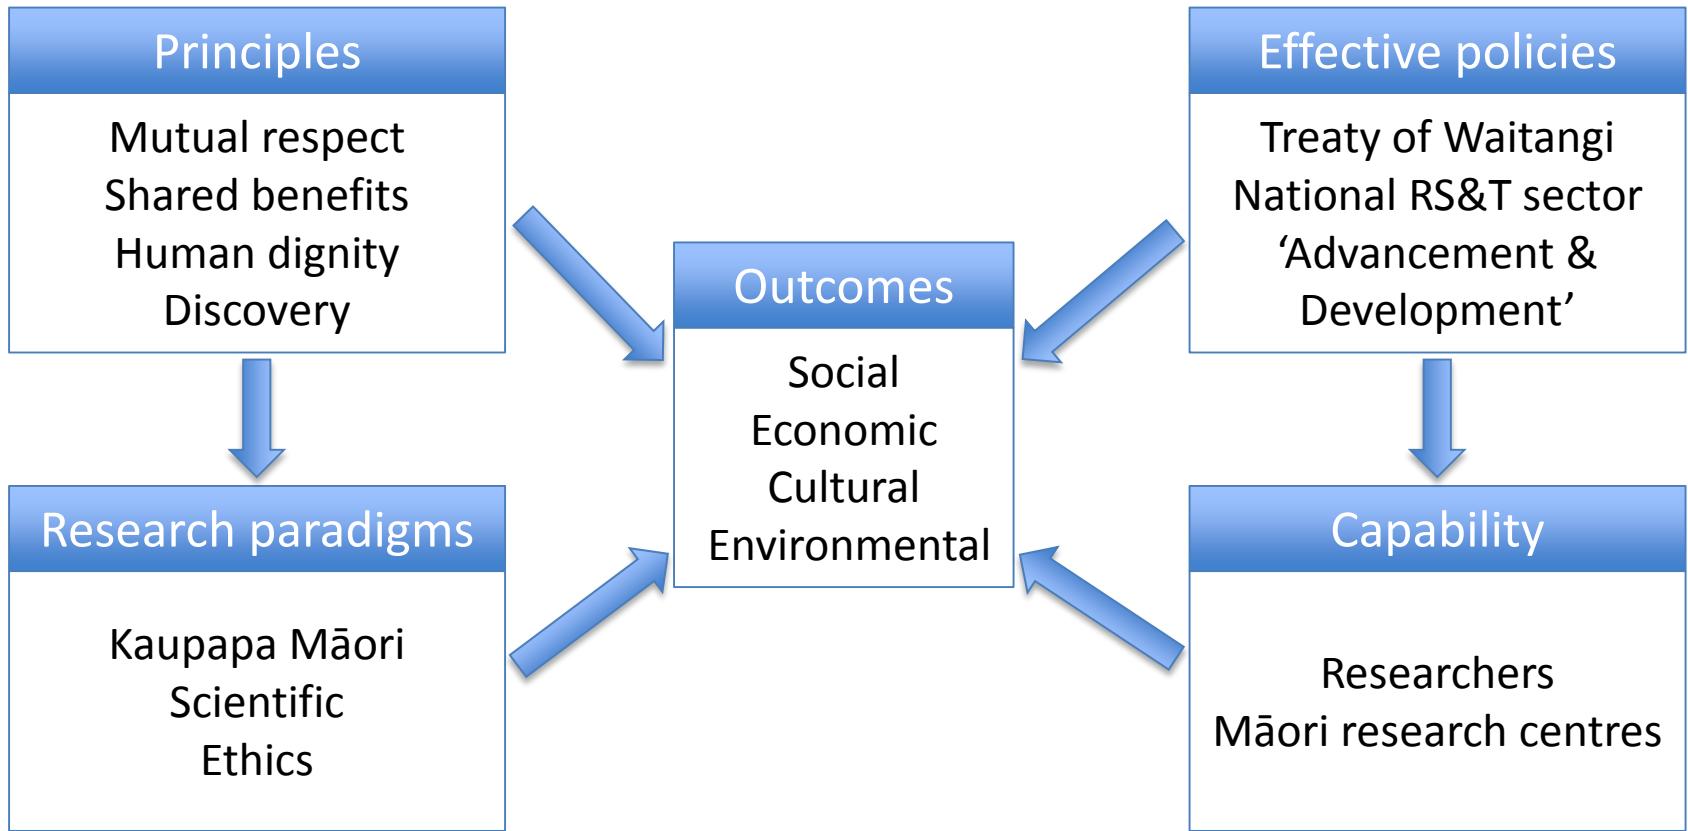

The knowledge interface

Te Ao Māori

Systems Science Approach

‘Interface research framework’ (2004), reproduced with permission of Emeritus Professor Sir Mason Durie

Future Focus

tupu: to grow; growth

whakatupu: cause to grow; cherish

whakatupuranga: generation

The Crown-Māori relationship must change “into a 21st century relationship of mutual advantage in which, through joint and agreed action, both sides end up better off than they were before they started. This is the Treaty of Waitangi beyond grievance.”

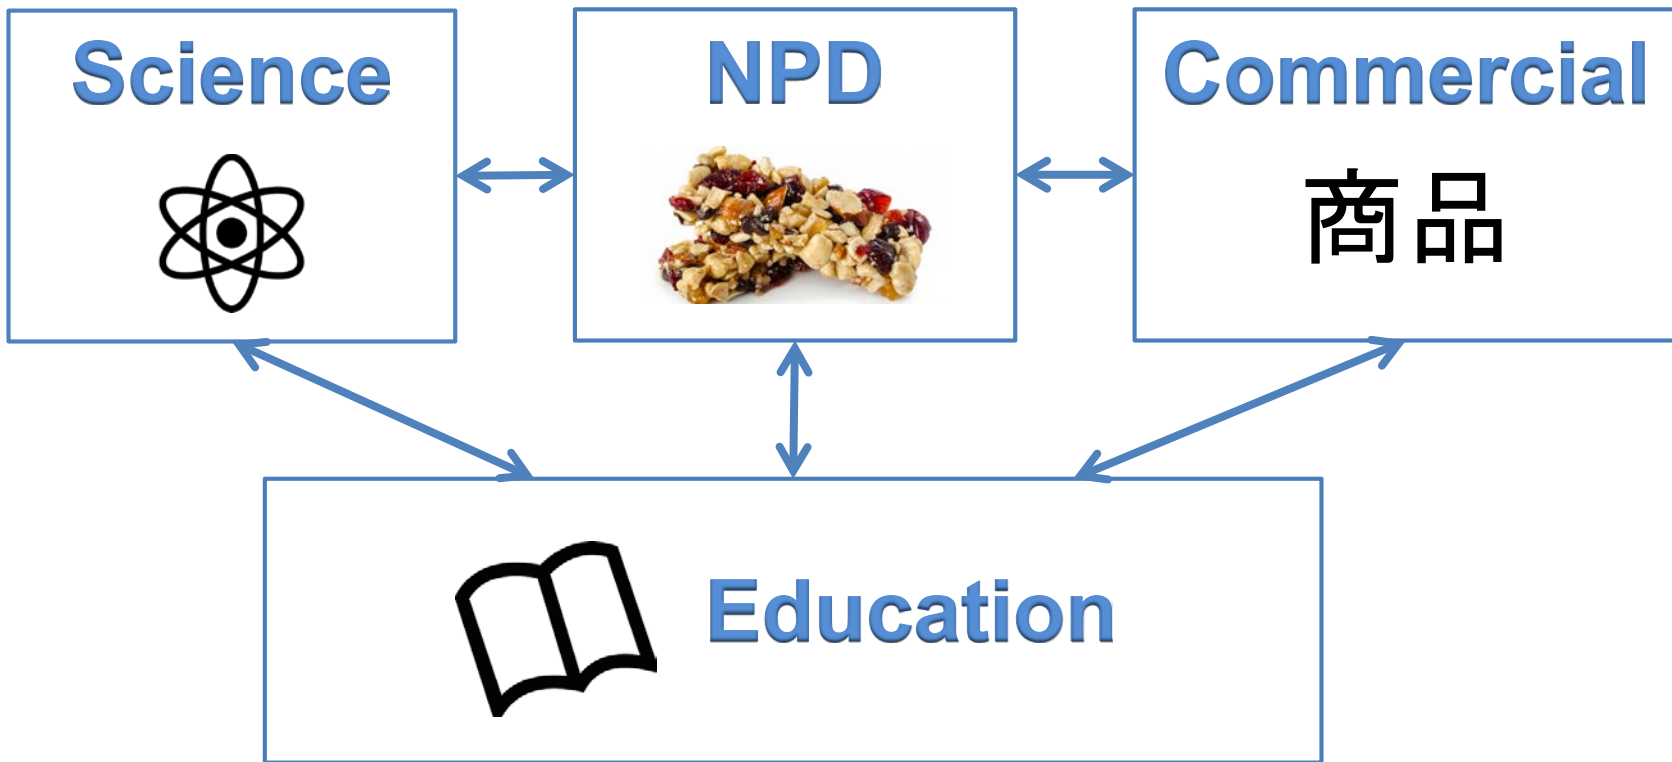

Wai 262: ‘Ko Aotearoa Tēnei’ (2011)

 The People

 The Vision

 The Project

 The Benefits

Education Programme

“The most significant contribution to Māori economic development is likely to come from improving the education and skills of Māori people.”

Whitehead and Annesley (2005)

 The People

 The Vision

 The Project

 The Benefits

'Interface research framework' (2004), produced with permission of Emeritus Professor Sir Mason Durie

Synergy

Nāku te rourou nāu te rourou, ka kī te kete

With my basket and your basket, the kit will be full

“The whole is greater than the sum of its parts”

