

Nomination Form: McKinnon Emerging Political Leader of the Year

Nominations are due by Thursday 6 December 2018 (11:59pm AEDT)

Note: This document is a guide only. Nominations must be submitted electronically via: <http://go.unimelb.edu.au/yyc6>

A. I am nominating myself for this award

1. I confirm that I was elected to office on or after 1 January 2014 and held office in 2018

Yes No

2. I confirm that, if selected, I will be available to attend the Oration evening in March 2019 at the University of Melbourne

Yes No I don't know

3. What elected office do you hold?

Federal State or Territory Local

4. Please provide further detail, for example, which electorate you represent or the council on which you sit.

5. Your Information

Name
Email
Address

Selection criteria

1. Overall, what do you identify as your key public policy achievement(s)?

Using specific examples, please summarise your key achievement(s) and then describe how you achieved this through your: vision, collaborative approach, courage, honesty and compassion. (max. 3000 characters)

(For more information, please see the nomination criteria:
<http://www.mckinnonprize.org.au/nominate>)

2. Please include links to any material that may assist the selection panel. This could include links to LinkedIn profiles, personal websites, videos, media coverage, etc. (max. 5 links)

Nominee Biography

If available, please upload a colour portrait photo that is approved for use in any communications related to The McKinnon Prize in Political Leadership.

If available, please include a brief biography that is approved for use in any communications related to The McKinnon Prize in Political Leadership. (max. 600 characters)

How did you hear about The McKinnon Prize in Political Leadership?

Tick as many boxes as required:

- Newspaper or news site
- Radio
- Television
- Internet search (e.g. Google)
- Social
- Poster or postcard
- Family or friend
- Work colleague
- Communications from the University of Melbourne
- Other

B. I am nominating another person for this award

1. I confirm that the nominee was elected to office on or after 1 January 2014 and held office in 2018

Yes No

2. Nominee's Name
3. Nominee's Email Address (if available)
4. Nominee's Address (if available)
5. What elected office does the nominee hold?

Federal State or Territory Local

6. Please provide further detail, for example, which electorate the nominee represents or the council on which they sit.

7. Your Information

Name
Email
Address

8. Do you consent to being contacted by the Prize organisers should further information about your nomination be required?

Yes No

Selection criteria

1. Overall, what do you identify as the nominee's key public policy achievement(s)?

Using specific examples, please summarise your nominee's key achievement(s) and then describe how they achieved this through their: vision, collaborative approach, courage, honesty and compassion. (max. 3000 characters)

(For more information, please see the nomination criteria:

<http://www.mckinnonprize.org.au/nominate>)

2. Please include links to any material that may assist the selection panel. This could include links to LinkedIn profiles, personal websites, videos, media coverage, etc. (max. 5 links)

How did you hear about The McKinnon Prize in Political Leadership?

Tick as many boxes as required:

- Newspaper or news site
- Radio
- Television
- Internet search (e.g. Google)
- Social
- Poster or postcard
- Family or friend
- Work colleague
- Communications from the University of Melbourne
- Other