

All A DREAM by Olivia

Lightning was striking and the rain was pouring. A koala was up in a tree. Sally said " Oh no! A koala is up in a tree. I will go and save it." "No!" yelled mum but it was too late. Sally was climbing the tree to save the koala.

The lighting was getting close to the tree when...CRACK! CRACK! Sally began to feel weird. She moved her hands and she felt all furry. She thought "Oh no! I think I am a koala."

Sally suddenly felt hungry so she ate a gum leaf. "Yuck!" she said spitting it out. Sally began to realise that even though koalas are cute, they can be boring. Sally felt very sad being just stuck up in a tree, eating the same food all the time!

Then Sally couldn't resist it anymore and she fell asleep for a long time. When she woke up, Sally was still tired but she was starving. She knew she needed to eat some more gum leafs.

So Sally began climbing down the tree to find a new branch when CRACK! She was back in her bedroom. She was all dry and not furry. It was like time had stopped. "Wake up sleepy head," Mum yelled from the kitchen.

It was time to get ready for school. Sally realised it had all been just a dream!
