

Book Review Rubric

Term 2, 2011

	No Marks	★	★★	★★★
Presentation	The review has not been completed and has sections missing.	The review has been rushed, has not been proofread and appears messy.	Most of the review is well presented. There are some spelling mistakes and missing punctuation.	The review has been neatly and creatively presented. Work has been proofread.
Effort	None or only a few of the sections of the review have been completed.	Many of the required sections have not been completed, or have been rushed	Most of the sections have been completed and are of a high standard.	All required sections have been completed and are of a high standard.
Information	None of the questions have been answered.	Only one or two of the questions have been answered, or questions have been answered and simply.	Three or four of the questions have been answered in a detailed fashion	All of the questions have been answered in detail.
Design and Creativity	The tasks have not been completed.	You have presented your idea in a simple format.	Some creativity and thought has been put in to your presentation.	A lot of creativity and thought has been put in to your presentation.
Thinking Skills	The questions have not been answered.	You haven't had much thought about your book and showed this in your presentation.	You have given some thought to your answers and showed this in your presentation.	You have clearly thought about your book and answers and showed this in your presentation.
Reading Challenge	You have selected a book that was far too easy for you.	You have selected a book that was simple and you didn't need to think much about.	You have selected a book that was at your level but you haven't shown you understood it.	You have selected an appropriate book to provide you with a challenge.
Organisation	Work not submitted on time.		Work has been submitted on time with most sections included.	Work has been submitted on time with all sections completed.
Extending Yourself	No extension tasks have been attempted.		You have given some thought to extension parts of the task.	You have gone above and beyond what was required, extending yourself with the task.