by pepa

My snowflake is very precious and kids are very good at them. My snowflake is very pretty elegant. Like fluffy white snow and. I am very good at them I love making them when I make them I feel good some times

One winter day a little snowflake got stuck on a window and two little kids looked on the window and they saw the snowflake and they ran up stairs. And pushed their winter coats and ran down stairs and went outside and they played and played in the snow there was a big storm
