

READING RESPONSES MENU

Highlight each one as you complete it.

1. Tell what you like or dislike about one of the characters.
2. Rewrite the ending differently: ie sadly, realistically, outrageously,
3. Imagine what you would have done when.....
4. Rewrite part of the story as a news report. Set it out as you would see in a newspaper.
5. Write a different story around one of the characters
6. Write a letter to the author expressing your views about the book
7. Explain how this book compares with another by this author
8. Paint or draw scenes from the book
9. Design an improved cover for the book and explain why yours is better
10. Make a poster advertising the book
11. Write an advertisement about the book
12. Record or video yourself reading a dramatic part of the book
13. Make a model of the hero/heroine of the story
14. Make a cartoon strip about the main episodes of the book
15. Draw a map of the main location of the book
16. Make a mind map to explain how all the characters fit into the story
17. Make a family tree to show the relationships of the characters
18. Write a diary entry for one of the characters
19. Design the front of a newspaper with different items about the book
20. Write a poem suggested by the mood or atmosphere of the book
21. Research to find out something about a part of the book
22. Work out some interview questions to ask a character during a T.V. interview
23. Draw the characters in the clothes that they would wear during your favourite part of the story
24. Make a list of the things you would take with you if you were to join in the story
25. Make a diorama of a scene from the book
26. If you were a parent/teacher of the main character, what would some advice be that you would offer the main character
27. If you were to make a T.V. program about the story, who would you choose to act out the characters from the book