

5/6 Extra Activities Rubric

Watch a BTN clip, then write a paragraph discussing whether you agree or disagree with the topic.	Your job is to write a different and exciting ending to a book you have recently read. Anything you want!	You have to cook dinner for your family tonight. You have $100 to spend on the food. Find a recipe online, then use the Coles website to find out how much the ingredients would cost you.	Visit https://scratch.mit.edu/ and learn how to code.	Interview some family members and create a family tree.	Create a workout for you and your family to complete together.
Set a timer and practise your skip counting patterns/multiplication facts.	Congratulations, you won $1 million! What would you spend it on? Write a page about what you would do with the money.	Write a poem about your favourite season.	Choose a planet in the solar system. Using the internet or books, find 10 interesting facts about your planet.	Draw a treasure map and write some directions to the treasure.	Write a persuasive letter and convince your teacher or parents about something
Draw something beautiful you saw today and that you are thankful for.	Choose 5 homophones, write them in your book, then have a go at illustrating them. For example, illustrate the difference between week and weak.	Choose a place in the world and design an advertising poster trying to convince people to visit.	Choose 10 words from your independent reading and put them into a funny or spooky paragraph.	Create an obstacle course in your backyard. Then time yourself, how fast can you go through your course?	Write a letter to a friend you haven't seen in a while. Let them know what's been happening in your life.
Choose 10 animals. Using the internet or books, find interesting facts about the animals.	Make a word search or crossword about the JRB you are reading at the moment.	Write a list of words from A-Z	Make a Kahoot for your class.	Create a comic strip	Design a poster promoting a new product