Remembering Women’s Activism

Sharon Crozier-De Rosa, University of Wollongong, Australia and Vera Mackie, University of Wollongong, Australia

Series: Remembering the Modern World

Remembering Women’s Activism examines the intersections between gender politics and acts of remembrance by tracing the cultural memories of women who are known for their actions. This book explores the gendered dimensions of history and memory through nation-based and transnational case studies from the Asia-Pacific region and Anglophone world and concludes by reflecting on the mobilization of memories of activism in the present. Transnational in scope and with reference to both state-centered and organic acts of remembering, Remembering Women’s Activism is an ideal volume for all students of gender and history, the history of feminism, and the relationship between memory and history.
