

Review of the novel 'Girl Online'

Author: Zoe Zugg

Summary

'Girl Online' is a novel regarding a teenage girl named Penny. She anonymously blogs her life experiences including; boys, love, friendships, bullies, family etc. And when she suffers severe panic attacks that are taking over her life she blogs about them as well. Penny travels to New York with her family where she meets a dreamy, mysterious musician named Noah. She records every moment she spent with Noah on her blog and her followers are suspicious. Suddenly Penny realizes she is falling deeply in love.

Recommendation

I recommend 'Girl Online' to pre-teens and teenagers because I really think it will engage them due to the romances and dramas that this novel contains.

Score out of 10

My score for girl online is a 7.5 out of 10 because it can be a stereotypical teenage romance at times, however, it is very interesting when unexpected plot twists occur. Therefore, 'Girl Online' written by Zoe Zugg is a quality book and will hook you up in the Penny's young romances and dramas!
